

Safeguarding and Protecting Young People in Squash Policy and Procedures

These are mandatory for all players and members (staff and volunteers) of England Squash.

All members must note that there are clear prohibited practices, which must not be breached. If there is a breach of the prohibited practice or codes of conduct, this should be reported to the committee of ASRC.

All incidents reported will be taken seriously and managed within the Complaints and Disciplinary Procedures in accordance with the regulations of the game.

The willing and active co-operative of all members, volunteers, parents/carers, players and coaches in accepting certain standards is essential if the status of squash & racketball activities are to be raised in England. The procedures detailed below will be used in the handling of all disciplinary matters.. The exact nature of the offence will determine the appropriate course of action in any particular situation. All individuals will be treated impartially and no acts of favouritism or discrimination will be permitted.

- An individual will render himself/herself liable to disciplinary action if the Code of Conduct or Prohibited Practice is breached.
- The individual will be informed of the nature of the breach as laid against him/her as soon as possible and will have the opportunity and the right to state their case before any decision regarding the appropriate disciplinary action is taken. Relevant timescales will be enforced and the individual informed of these.
- When the facts have been established and responsibility is clear, disciplinary action can comprise of one of the following: a) verbal warning b) written warning c) termination of status with England Squash.

Coaches Code of Conduct

The Coaches Code of Conduct applies to all coaches in squash & racketball at every level within the game. If the code is breached and reported, all complaints and allegations will be acted upon accordingly.

Coaches will:

- Remember that players participate for pleasure and winning is part of the fun
  - Operate within the rules and spirit of squash & racketball and teach players to do the same
  - Ensure that equipment and facilities meet safety standards and are appropriate to the age and ability of all players
  - Obtain appropriate qualifications and keep up to date with the latest coaching practices and developments.
  - Be adequately protected with Third Party Insurance, which covers them if a player is injured while in their charge. If they have other coaches who work under their direction or take work for them in their absence, they should be protected with adequate Employers Liability Insurance
- Ensure there is appropriate and correct supervision of players on and off the court
  - Be aware of and abide by England Squash Safeguarding and Protecting Young People Policy, Procedures and Guidelines
  - Be a positive role model
  - Provide positive feedback to all players during training and matches
  - Respect all referees decisions and ensure players do the same
  - Refrain from public criticism of fellow coaches in the Association.
- Ensure that any advertising is accurate and professionally restrained. Permission to display advertising should be sought from any other coaches at the same club
  - Communicate and co-operate with medical and ancillary practitioners in the diagnosis, treatment and management of their player's medical and psychological problems
  - Treat everyone equally regardless of age, ability, gender, race, religion, ethnic origin, social status or sexual orientation and accept that everyone has the right to be protected from abuse
    - Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every person within the context of squash & racketball
  - Report any concerns in relation to a young person, follow reporting procedures laid down by England Squash

Coaches Will NOT:

- Spend time alone with young people away from others, including taking young people to their home where they will be alone with them, transporting young people alone in their car, sharing a room with a young person, agreeing to meet a young person on their own on a one to one basis etc.
- Invite or allow young people to stay at your home
- Transport children if they are an unregistered driver

- Allow or engage in any form of inappropriate physical touching or sexual contact or behaviour with young people, including engaging in rough, physical or sexually provocative games, making sexually suggestive comments, even in fun, engaging in any form of sexually related contact, sexual innuendo, flirting or inappropriate gestures and terms
- Use or allow young people to use inappropriate language unchallenged •
- Allow allegations made by a young person to go unchallenged, unrecorded or not acted upon
- Do things of a personal nature for young people that they can do for themselves, unless you have been requested to do so by the parents/carer. (It is recognised that some young people will always need help with things such as lace tying and it is also recognised that this does not preclude anyone attending to an injured/ill young person or rendering first aid)
- Depart the squash club or agreed rendezvous point until the safe dispersal of all young people is complete
- Cause an individual to lose self-esteem by embarrassing, humiliating or undermining the individual. Ridicule or shout at a player/team for making a mistake or not winning
- Treat some young people more favourably than others or condone any form of discrimination or allow it to go unchallenged. •
- Expose players to extreme heat or cold or unacceptable risk of injury
- Smoke or consume alcohol or illegal substances while working/participating in a squash & racketball environment
- Use foul, sexist or racist language or gestures at any time
- Condone behaviour that contravenes the codes of conduct/prohibited practice
- Use illegal or dangerous tactics
- Give young people alcohol, cigarettes or drugs.
- A coach is responsible to both players and fellow coaches and should not under any circumstances solicit away business from any other coach or club

Player Code of Conduct

This applies to all individuals who participate in squash & racketball as a player (under the age of 18 years) at every level. If the code is breached and reported, all complaints and allegations will be acted upon accordingly.

Players will:

- Treat everyone equally regardless of age, ability, gender, race, religion, ethnic origin, social status or sexual orientation and accept that everyone has the right to be protected from abuse
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every person within the context of squash & racketball
- Know and abide by the rules of the game
- Accept the referees decision without question or complaint (let the captain or coach ask the necessary questions)
- Avoid violence and rough play
- Help injured players and opponents where appropriate
- Keep to agreed timings for training, team matches and competitions or inform the coach, captain or organiser if they are going to be late
- Players must wear suitable kit including England Squash & Racketball approved eye protection for training and match sessions, as agreed with the coach
- Players must pay any fees for training or events promptly

Players will NOT

- Smoke on club premises or whilst representing the club
- Consume alcohol or illegal substances of any kind on the club premises or whilst representing the club
- Use foul, sexist or racist language or gestures at any time
- Condone behaviour that contravenes the codes of conduct or prohibited practice
- Use illegal or dangerous tactics

Parents Code of Conduct

This applies to all parents at any squash & racketball tournament, match or training session at every level within the game. If the code is breached and reported, all complaints and allegations will be acted upon accordingly.

Parents will:

- Focus on the child's efforts and enjoyment rather than winning or losing
  - Encourage young people to play and not force them
  - Provide positive verbal feedback in both training and matches; applaud good performance and efforts from all individuals and teams
  - Encourage players to participate within the rules and regulations of the game
  - Be aware when their child(ren) are using the changing rooms and supervise as appropriate.
  - Congratulate all participants on their performance regardless of the game's outcome
  - Leave the coach to communicate with individual players during matches
- Respect referees, officials (including decisions), coaches, players and spectators and teach children to do the same
  - Inform the team coach or manager of any injury, health or welfare issue that it is felt appropriate for them to know
  - Remember that children participate in sport for their enjoyment, not the parents
  - Treat everyone equally regardless of age, ability, gender, race, religion, ethnic origin, social status or sexual orientation and accept that everybody has the right to be protected from abuse
    - Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every person within the context of squash & racketball
    - Report any concerns in relation to a young person, follow reporting procedures laid down by England Squash & Racketball

Parents will NOT:

- Condone any form of discrimination or allow it to go unchallenged
- Force children to participate in squash & racketball
- Ridicule, shout at, punish or belittle children or other players for making a mistake or losing a game.
- Question publicly the referee, coach or official's decisions within a game, match or training situation
- Enter the court of play
- Use foul, sexist or racist language or gestures at any time
- Condone behaviour that contravenes the codes of conduct/prohibited practice
- Give young people alcohol or cigarettes when they are under the care of the County or Club

Referee Code of Conduct

This applies to all referees in squash & racketball at every level within the game. If the code is breached and reported, all complaints and allegations will be acted upon.

Referees will:

- Compliment and encourage all participants
- Be consistent, objective and courteous when making decisions
- Emphasise the spirit of the game rather than the errors
- Keep up to date with the latest officiating developments
- Remember that referees set an example. Referees' behaviour and comments should be positive and supportive
- Place the safety and welfare of the participants above all else
- Treat everyone equally regardless of age, ability, gender, race, religion, ethnic origin, social status or sexual orientation and accept that everybody has the right to be protected from abuse
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every person within the context of squash & racketball
- Report any concerns in relation to a young person, follow reporting procedures laid down by England Squash & Racketball

Referees will NOT:

- Condone any form of discrimination or allow it to go unchallenged
- Ridicule or shout at a player/team for making a mistake or not winning
- Expose players to extreme heat or cold or unacceptable risk of injury
- Smoke or consume alcohol or illegal substances while working/participating in a squash & racketball environment •
- Use foul, sexist or racist language or gestures at any time
- Condone behaviour that contravenes the codes of conduct/prohibited practice
- Use illegal or dangerous tactics
